

Positive Parenting Solutions for Families of Preschoolers and Younger

Janet Carpenter
LMSW

Mrs. Carpenter received her Masters in Social Work and Infant Mental Health Certificate from U of M and worked 15 years supervising a multidisciplinary team of medical, mental health, psychological, and sensory disciplines, helping children with regulatory and behavioral issues. She also worked for three years as an Early Childhood Specialist and is now a preschool assistant in our P3s.

Terri Ritchie
Preschool Teacher

Mrs. Ritchie studied child development at both Macomb Community College and Wayne State University and has worked with children 2-5 years of age for 20 years as a preschool teacher and Early Childhood Educator. She came to Peace in 2013 and is lead teacher in our 3-year-old preschool program and oversees the Ages and Stages Evaluations.

Do you feel exhausted at the end of the day dealing with your preschooler or young child? Are you looking for new creative ways to deal with challenging behaviors? Could you use some adult time sharing ideas with other parents?

Join Peace's Early Childhood teachers. as we explore positive ways to reinforce the behaviors that you want to encourage in your children. We will learn together how to turn chaos into serenity while increasing your child's confidence and self worth.
